

A portrait of a woman with dark, curly hair, wearing a black turtleneck sweater and a small hoop earring. The background is a soft-focus image of autumn leaves in shades of yellow and orange.

Magnolia

ROUSE THOMPSON

MAGGIE

Memorial Service

Saturday, November 27, 2021

Brother Nick Royer, Officiating

Song #30 My Father, My God and Friend

Song #139 See Yourself When All Is New

SEPTEMBER 24, 1955 - NOVEMBER 6, 2021

Life's Journey

Magnolia Rouse Thompson was born September 24, 1955 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to her parents Robert and Louise Rouse who preceded her in death. To her family's immeasurable sorrow, she took her last breath on November 6, 2021.

Magnolia was educated in the Philadelphia School District and attended Bok Technical High School. "Maggie," as she was known by her family and friends, had a self-motivating and zealous, hard-working spirit, which landed her to become self-employed. She created her own cleaning company and interior design wall-paper business. Although she worked herself tirelessly, she always traveled to help a family member or friend that was sick. She truly had that willing and giving spirit to help and comfort others in their time of need. What contributed to her self-sacrificing spirit was her love for Jehovah God.

Maggie dedicated her life to Jehovah God and symbolized it by water baptism on July 18, 1975. She enjoyed making cards for any occasion as well as scrapbooking and critiquing pictures. We all knew she loved to talk ...but that is our dearest sister Maggie. We loved her.

Maggie is preceded in death by her siblings: Robert Rouse Jr., Sara Mae Rouse, Shirley Rouse, Eugene Dan Rouse, Lois Rouse, Robert Rouse 3rd, Craig Rouse, Samuel Rouse, Maurice Rouse, Bryant Rouse and Sheila Bush.

Maggie leaves to cherish her memory, her sisters: Diane Johnson, Jean Carney, Elizabeth Rouse, Darlene Wesley, Denise DeOliveria, and Debra Hanton; her brother: Darryl Rouse; three brothers-in-law: Thomas Johnson, Lonnie Wesley and Bertram Hanton; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles.

Acknowledgement

The family would like to thank all for your love and support and many prayers during this time of great loss. May Jehovah God bless each one of you for the spirit you show.